

Useful Web Sites

- The Learning Community for Person Centered Practices www.elpnet.net Originally organized around the work of Michael Smull expanded to include innovation by The Learning Community for Person Centered Practices. Workbooks, materials, and access to trainers thru the web site.
- Community Works! <http://www.communityworks.info/> management consultations, facilitation and training in PATH, person centered planning and microboards. Find articles and access to training. David and Faye Wetherow's web site.
- Inclusion Press at <http://www.inclusion.com/> - Jack Pearpoint, Linda Kahn, Cathy Hollands; Access to materials; workshops. PATH's and MAP's
- Imagine at <http://www.dimage.com/> - David Pitonyak describes his work as about relationships. The story-line that floats around about the person is a major part of the problem when people exhibit what some have called, "difficult behaviors." What is needed is a new story...
- Capacity Works www.capacityworks.com organized around the work of Beth Mount and includes John and Connie Lyle O'Brien - Personal Futures Planning
- John and Connie Lyle O'Brien; Responsive Systems Associates; <http://thechp.syr.edu/rsa.htm> several articles they've written available here.
- Helen Sanderson Associates www.helensandersonassociates.co.uk organized around Helen's work with various person centered planning tools ELP; Path; Personal Futures